What to do if you have been the victim of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE
After an incident of sexual assault and domestic violence, the victim should consider seeking medical attention as soon as possible at one of the three local hospitals. In Illinois, evidence may be collected even if you chose not to make a report to law enforcement. If you decide at a later date, that you would like to prosecute, this evidence will be available. Hospitals in Illinois are required to notify the local police department that treatment has been given to a sexual assault victim. It is important that a victim of sexual assault not bathe, douche, smoke, change clothing, or clean the bed/linen/area where they were assaulted if the offense occurred within the past 96 hours so that evidence as may be necessary to the proof of criminal activity may be preserved. In circumstances of sexual assault, if victims do not opt for forensic evidence collection, healthcare providers can still treat injuries and take steps to address concerns of pregnancy and/or sexually transmitted disease.

PRESERVING EVIDENCE
Victims of sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, and dating violence are encouraged to also preserve evidence by saving text messages, instant messages, social networking pages, other communications, and keeping pictures, logs, or other copies of documents, if they have any, that would be useful to investigators or police.

REPORTING
Although the college strongly encourages all members of its community to report violations of this policy to law enforcement, it is the victim’s choice whether or not to make such a report and victims have the right to decline involvement with the police. To report an incident involving a sexual assault, domestic violence, stalking, or dating violence, students or employees should contact the Campus President, who will provide you with all options available for help and provide assistance with contacting police if you choose to make a police report. Contact information for the Rockford Police Department and the Winnebago County Sheriff’s Department is located on the back of this booklet.

Rockford Career College does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs and sexual harassment and sexual violence are types of sex discrimination. Other acts can also be forms of sex-based discrimination and are also prohibited by the college as well as federal law whether sexually based or not and include dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking. Because you are reporting a possible form of sex-based discrimination, Rockford Career College wants to inform you of our policy and procedures that address sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, and stalking, whether the incident occurs on or off campus, as well as your rights and the college’s responsibilities.

Be advised you may have the right to file criminal charges as well as the right to available medical, counseling and support services. We also offer additional remedies to prevent contact between a complainant and an accused party, such as temporary or permanent changes in academic and working conditions, if reasonably available. The policy also addresses possible sanctions and interim and/or long-term protective measures that the college may impose following a report through the final determination of our discipline process. If you would like more information than is contained in this handout regarding any process or procedure, or if you’d like to make a report, ask questions about the policy, or need to request an accommodation to your academic or working arrangements regardless of whether or not you chose to report the crime to law enforcement, contact Michael O’Herron, Campus President and Title IX Coordinator.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: Does information about a complaint remain private?
A: The privacy of all parties to a complaint of sexual misconduct must be respected, except insofar as it interferes with the college’s obligation to fully investigate allegations of sexual misconduct. Where privacy is not strictly kept, it will still be tightly controlled on a need-to-know basis.

Q: If I am a student, will my parents be told?
A: No, not unless you tell them. Whether you are the complainant or the accused student, the college’s primary relationship is to the student and not to the parent. However, in the event of major medical, disciplinary, or academic jeopardy, students are strongly encouraged to inform their parents.

Q: Do I have to name the alleged offender?
A: It is your choice. If you want action to be taken against the individual, you must name him/her. However, alleged victims should be aware that by not identifying the alleged offender this may limit the college’s ability to respond comprehensively.

Q: If at first I choose not to file an incident report, how long do I have to complete one?
A: Although we encourage individuals to report incidents of sexual misconduct immediately, we realize that there may be some hesitation. Reports should be made at the earliest convenience or immediately after a department, employee, or staff member have been made aware of the incident that occurred. However, there is no time limit to reporting.

VIOLENT CRIME VICTIM’S RIGHTS

WHEN YOU REPORT A VIOLENT CRIME, YOU HAVE THE RIGHT TO:

• File a claim for financial assistance under the Illinois Crime Victims’ Compensation Act.
• Ask Police for information about the status of the investigation

AFTER THE OFFENDER IS CHARGED, TALK TO THE PROSECUTOR ABOUT ASSERTING THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS:

• A statement and explanation of your rights as a crime victim
• Prompt disposition after the arrest of the accused information about the indictment or juvenile delinquency petition
• Notice of the date, time, and place of the trial
• Advance notice of all court proceedings and cancellation of court proceedings
• Information on social services, financial assistance, and employer intervention
• Notice of the release of the defendant
• Notice of the final case disposition
• To be present at all court proceedings
• To be present at trial, unless the court determines that your testimony will be affected if you hear the testimony of other witnesses
• To have a translator present at all court proceedings
• To bring an advocate or support person to all court proceedings, subject to the Rules of Evidence

ORDERS OF PROTECTION AND NO-CONTACT ORDERS

In Illinois, a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking has rights (see sidebar to the left). Further, the college complies with Illinois law in recognizing orders of protection. Any person who obtains an order of protection from Illinois or any other state should provide a copy to the Campus President. A complainant may then meet with college representatives to develop a “Safety Action Plan,” which is a plan for the college and the victim to reduce risk of harm while on campus or coming and going from campus. This plan may include, but is not limited to: escorts, or changing classroom location, etc.

To obtain an Order of Protection, you can: ask your attorney to file in civil court, request an order with your divorce, request an order during a criminal trial for abuse, go to the Winnebago, Boone, or the Ogle County Circuit Clerk’s office and get papers to seek an order of protection for yourself, or contact Remedies to ask for free assistance in completing the forms.

To the extent of the victim’s cooperation and consent, the college will work cooperatively to ensure that the complainant’s health, physical safety, work, and academic status are protected, pending the outcome of a formal college investigation of the complaint. For example, if reasonably available, a complainant may be offered changes to academic or working situations in addition to counseling, health services, visa, and immigration assistance and assistance in notifying appropriate local law enforcement.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Personal identifiable information about the victim will be treated as confidential and only shared with persons with a specific need to know who are investigating/adjudicating the complaint or delivering resources or support services to the complainant. For example, publicly available recordkeeping for purposes of Clery Act reporting and disclosures will be made without inclusion of identifying information about the victim, as defined in 42 USC 1395 (a) (20). Further, the institution will maintain as confidential, any accommodations or protective measures provided to the victim to the extent that maintaining such confidentiality would not impair the ability of the institution to provide the accommodations or protective measures.

The College does not publish the name of crime victims nor house identifiable information regarding victims in any log or online. Victims have the right to require that directory information about them not be disclosed. To make this request, a student must submit such a request to the Admissions Office at (815) 965-8616. Students who request suppression of directory information usually do so because of serious, even dangerous, circumstances. It is critical that their absolute privacy be protected in every situation. If a student has elected to suppress directory information, the College will respond to inquiries as follows: “There is no information available for any student by that name.”

AFTER THE DEFENDANT IS SENTENCED, TALK TO THE PROSECUTOR ABOUT ASSERTING THE FOLLOWING RIGHTS:

• Notice of an appeal or any post-conviction petition by the defendant
• Notice of the prisoner’s release or discharge
• A recent photo of the defendant convicted of a felony, upon the defendant’s release
• Advance notice of the defendant’s furlough dates and times
• Notice of any escape or re-apprehension of the prisoner
• Advance notice of the parole hearing
• To provide a statement or attend the parole hearing
• Notice after the prisoner’s request for parole has been granted
• Notice of the death of the prisoner
• Notice of the prisoner’s request for executive clemency

VICTIMS RIGHTS

Crime victims, as defined by law, shall have the following rights:

• The right to be treated with fairness and
• Respect for their dignity and privacy throughout the criminal justice process.
• The right to notification of court proceedings.
• The right to communicate with the prosecution.
• The right to make a statement to the court at sentencing.
• The right to information about the conviction, sentence, imprisonment, and release of the accused.
• The right to timely disposition of the case following the arrest of the accused.
• The right to be reasonably protected from the accused throughout the criminal justice process.
• The right to be present at the trial and all other court proceedings on the same basis as the accused, unless the victim is to testify and the court determines that the victim’s testimony would be materially affected if the victim hears other testimony at the trial.
• The right to have present at all court proceedings, subject to the rules of evidence, an advocate or other support person of the victim’s choice.
• The right to restitution.
